CANDIDATE STATEMENT

Please provide a brief explanation (150 words max.) as to why you would like to join the Oakville Soccer Club Board of Directors. Please include your educational and work experience.

I am greatly interested in becoming a Board of Director at the OSC. I believe sport is a tool that serves youth with opportunities to develop and grow. As an avid multi-sport participant, I can attest firsthand the power of sport to build self-confidence and awareness, teach life-lessons about dedication and commitment, and create a strong sense of community and belonging. I have been a member of the OSC community as a proud parent watching my daughter and son learn the game as well as a slightly in over my head volunteer coach!

I possess the following skills and experiences that can contribute to the OSC's strategic objectives:

- An MBA in management consulting coupled with formal experience as an executive coach for non-profit CEOs
- Good governance specialist; sat on Board for a Halton-based non-profit and has provided governance advisory services to numerous organizations
- Strong emphasis on the use of data and performance metrics to guide decision-making as well as strategic and business planning
