

OAKVILLE SOCCER CLUB VIRTUAL CODE OF CONDUCT

Staying in touch is more important than ever during these unprecedented times. OSC encourages teams and players to stay active and connected with each other using safe social media and online practices.

To guide members through these interactions, OSC has created a Virtual Code of Conduct, which is detailed below. All members, including, but not limited to staff, coaches, volunteers, match officials, players and parents are expected to abide by this code at all times. Although off-site and online, you are still a member and representative of the Oakville Soccer Club through your interactions, meetings and practices.

Staff/Staff Coach/Volunteer Coach/Team Official should:

- Continue to abide by OSC's existing Codes of Conduct, policies and procedures
- Refrain from using statements regarding the Club and its affiliates that could be seen as negative or demeaning
- Wear OSC branded clothing when communicating with the membership and external stakeholders
- Show the utmost respect for one another (staff, coaches, teammates, parents, players, etc.)
- Refrain from using profanity, inappropriate language/sayings, or engaging in conversation that would make fellow members uncomfortable
- Refrain from engaging in any activity/interaction that could be deemed bullying or inappropriate
- Report any witnessed activity/interaction that could be deemed bullying or otherwise inappropriate to your respective staff member/coach
- Refrain from participating in Club events/activities while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs
- Continue to abide by OSC's Rule of Two policy for all online and virtual interactions including but not limited to phone and online message and chat groups/applications, events, meetings and conversations with players/OSC membership
- Turn off electronic devices besides those used to connect to the call while meeting with members or external stakeholders
- Make all team/player interaction voluntary (consider members and teammates who do not have access to a computer/internet or are uncomfortable using the platform)
- Ensure players know that they should only participate if they can do so safely in their space
- Obtain consent from parents of all players/participants before sharing or posting items including players online
- Ensure all social media accounts for teams are set to private
- Do not use player's last names or any other personal information in posts
- Encourage players to log on to social/virtual calls with their first name only
- Do not post team/player related content to your personal accounts
- Prepare properly and ensure to remain punctual for all scheduled meetings/events
