REMOVAL-FROM-SPORT & RETURN-TO-SPORT PROTOCOLS

Designated Person(s)

In accordance with the requirements set out in Rowan's Law and its associated regulation, every sport organization is required to identify a designated person(s) as having specific responsibilities under the removal-from-sport and return-to-sport protocols. The responsibilities for the designated person(s) may be shared between one or more individuals. If your sport organization has more than one designated person(s), please ensure that each designate is clear about who has what responsibility under the Removal-from-Sport protocol and the Return-to-Sport protocol.

Designated Person(s) at the Oakville Soccer Club

Due to the size and locational variance during OSC programming, the Club hereby names the head coach and/or the player's parent as the designated person at each team training/game in reference to removal-from-sport and return-to-sport protocols. If the head coach and/or player's parent is not present, the team official present will assume the role of designated person. The Oakville Soccer Club thanks its coaches, team officials and parents for their investment and dedication into reading, understanding and administering the following protocols as required. Player safety is paramount, and we could not do it without you.

The graduated return-to-sport steps may include the following activities listed on the next page's chart. It is typically recommended that an athlete with concussion rest for 24 to 48 hours before beginning step 1.
